

Katiba Day Commemorations

There have been many successes and challenges in the implementation of the Constitution of Kenya (CoK). There is a need to reflect and evaluate on them. Read More

(On the left) Thespians from the Kenya Institute of Puppet Theatre (KIPT) perform during the Katiba Day Anniversary celebrations.

Training on risk management and anti-corruption

Uraia Trust Implementing Partners are constantly trained on various aspects, aimed at equipping them with numerous skills. Read More...

(Above) Lawrence Kaberi, an expert with Gitbae Associates, facilitates the training on risk management and anti-corruption.

Gender and responsive mainstreaming

Gender issues are important in the work of Civil Society Organisation (CSOs). It involves understanding policies; at both national and international levels. Read More...

County visits, spot checks undertaken

Uraia Trust carries out its work through Implementing Partners. These partners are visited in order to ensure their working is enhanced. Read More...

Training on documentation for Implementing Partners

Most significant stories of change showcase the impact of Uraia Trust's work, through its Implementing Partners. They show how the lives of citizens have been changed. Read More...

Contact Us

Uraia House, Jacaranda Avenue, off Gitanga Road | P.O. Box 28151 - 00100 | Nairobi, Kenya Tel: +254 (0) 20 2135561 | Mobile: +254 (0) 710 387665 | Email: info@uraia.or.ke | www.uraia.or.ke | <https://twitter.com/UraiaTrust> | facebook.com/uraia